STEP 1 Have a look at your Course Map for the structure of your course. This may vary depending on the campus and the year you started the course. Make a note of the core units you need to enrol in for 2020.

STEP 2 Make sure you’ve read the Course Information. It has links to the Handbook which contains information on the major, minor and specialisation options available in your course. Be sure you are familiar with the rules and structure of your course.

STEP 3 Next up, check the Unit Information for details about elective units offered at your campus this year. Pay particular attention to prerequisite requirements.

STEP 4 Head over to the Enrolment page on the ACU website. You’ll see step-by-step instructions on how to enrol in units via Student Connect. IMPORTANT: Please enroll for both Semester 1 and Semester 2 in 2020.
You can still change your Semester 2 enrolment up to the end of August without financial penalty. It is possible that some units may be cancelled if student numbers are very low.

The Course Enrolment Guide is designed to assist you in the selection of units and to ensure that you are aware of the requirements of your degree, diploma or certificate. Specific information relating to unit content and assessments are provided on the relevant course map.

Before you go, did you know?
Course Enrolment Guides can change so you should check the website for the latest updates. Additional information from your School, Faculty and the University will be sent to your ACU student email address or notices placed on LEO (Learning Environment Online) so make sure you have got it set up and that you check it regularly.

All email communication with University staff must be sent from your ACU student email account and SHOULD include your student ID number.

The Core Curriculum

Compulsory for all undergraduate courses

All undergraduate students are required to complete the University Core Curriculum as part of their course. The Core Curriculum is comprised of three units and further information on its structure can be found on the Core Curriculum webpage. The Core Curriculum units specific to your course are indicated on the course map and can also be found in the Handbook.

The Australian Catholic University Core Curriculum has been designed to focus on aspects of the University’s identity and mission. These units emphasise critical judgment, clear expression, ethical decision-making and concern for others, as individuals and as a community.

The two University Core Curriculum units are:
UNCC100 Self and Community: Exploring the Anatomy of Modern Society
UNCC300 Justice and Change in a Global World (offered as a campus delivered unit as well as being offered offshore)

Alternative to Core Curriculum Units

In the course maps UNCC100 Self and Community: Exploring the Anatomy of Modern Society and UNCC300 Justice and Change in a Global World are Core Curriculum units. As an alternative, students may be eligible to take PHIL102 Theories of Human Nature or PHIL104 Introduction to Ethics in place of UNCC100; and PHIL320 Ethics, Justice and the Good Society in place of UNCC300. Full details of the eligibility requirements are available on the Philosophy Units section of the Core Curriculum website.

These units are also offered during different teaching cycles outside of the standard Semester 1 and Semester 2 offerings. Students should take special care to note the week pattern of tutorials when they allocate in tutorial direct to ensure that they are choosing the correct stream for their course.

How to Enrol in 2020 Using the Current Course Map

If you enrolled in 2018 or prior, the current course map is different to when you first enrolled. Here is a quick “How To” guide and a few explanations of terminology used in the course progression tool used on Student Connect to help you enrol into units for 2020.

Remember, enrolling into semester 1 and semester 2 is requested to avoid the closure of units due to low enrolment.

What does a FALL THROUGH UNIT mean and how does it affect my course?
*Fall Through Unit means this is a unit that you have completed that sits outside the current course rules and unit structure according to the “current” Handbook.

Why are Units Listed Not Counted?
*These could be units that exceed the maximum allowable credit transfer or, are units undertaken in a course previously to the current academic year. Often these are units that have not been replaced by another unit according to the Course Rules.

2018 and PRIOR ENROLMENT COURSE MAPPING:
You can map your course progression by marking off (using an X as an example, in each square on the map) a unit you have successfully completed against the units listed on the current course map. You should be able to see what units you have remaining that need to be completed if you follow these simple steps;

1. Mark off all units you have completed that match the current map as being complete.
   If you have completed a unit that is now listed as “incompatible”, you should mark off the unit you have completed in that space.
2. If you have a fall through unit, refer to the Revised Units list link on last page of this document to see if the unit has been renamed, replaced or discontinued. Mark the unit off the course map as per the listed change.
3. After completing steps 1-3 if you still have completed unit/s that are not listed on this current map but have spare “Elective” spaces, you should assign one unit per elective space until you have no units left to allocate to the current map.
4. The remaining unmarked units are the units needed to complete your degree and this may include elective spaces.

PLEASE NOTE: If you commenced your degree in 2018 or prior and believe you are eligible for course completion and have successfully used the above steps to map your course progress, you should always check your course mapping with your campus course advisor.

* All units successfully completed are considered when assessing course completion requests even if the unit is listed as a unit that is Not Counted.

If you have completed a unit listed as incompatible on this map do not enrol into the unit that is listed above it... Only if you are a student who failed the incompatible unit, should the new unit listed above be undertaken in its place. The incompatible unit is no longer offered.
New in 2020

Due to a recent course review, the Information Technology Units and some Entrepreneurial and Event Managements Unit codes have changed.

Please keep an eye on the incompatible units list to ensure you are not repeating a unit you have already done. If you do enrol into an incompatible unit, you need to be aware that you will only receive credit for one of these units.

FOUNDATION UNITS

If you are a student who is in their 2nd or 3rd year but are yet to complete or have failed a unit that is listed in the table on the left below, refer to the 2020 Foundation Unit list on the right and complete the unit listed in that column in its place. If you have completed a unit on the left, please DO NOT enrol into the unit on the right. These units are incompatible, and only one unit can have credit points awarded.

What is the Structure of the Bachelor of Commerce Degree

The BCOM course has been designed to offer students the chance to study an 8x8x8 unit structure.

The degree comprises of 8 core units, 8 units selected for the major and a further 8 units that can be attributed in the following:

1) a second major which uses all remaining 8 units (these must be 2nd and 3rd year units)
2) choose two minors, 4 units each in two disciplines (these must be 2nd and 3rd year units)

Examples:
- Double Major
  Bachelor of Commerce with a Major in Accounting and Management; or
- Single major with 2 minors
  Bachelor of Commerce with a Major in Management with minors in HRMG and Event Management

Course maps on the next page are an example of the generic course map for both single and double majors.

Dual Degree course structure is different, and the following maps are not relevant to you. Students must refer to the course maps and course rules for the applicable degree structure.
